SAN DIEGO-YUMA ROAD
MAY FALL
INTO S. P. HANDS.

What has long been predicted as to the ultimate ownership of the San Diego-Yuma Railroad, being built and financed by John D. Spreckels, seems likely of fulfillment, as witness the following from a San Diego paper of recent date:

The railroad desire of the Spreckels heart is this: He has organized the San Diego and Arizona company for the purpose of building a road 200 miles from San Diego east to Yuma, across the desert to Yuma to connect with the Southern Pacific line. Mr. Spreckels has spent over a half a million for rights of way. The route at one point crosses Mexican territory in Lower California. A concession was obtained by Mr. Spreckels from President Diaz.

Valuable terminal rights have been obtained in San Diego, and Mr. Spreckels hopes to avoid bridging the Colorado river at Yuma by building to the California end of the Southern Pacific bridge.

It will cost $6,000,000 to build and equip the proposed road. Mr. Spreckels, up-to-date, has not been able to finance and he wants Harriman to do so.

Mr. Harriman is not altogether in a position to turn a deaf ear to the Spreckels railroad song. He does not want some other railroad crowd like the Rock Island, or Phelps, Dodge & Co's El Paso and Southwestern system to join hands with Spreckels.

The Santa Fe is of a similar mind to Harriman. It does not want any roads but itself and the Southern Pacific in the southern part of the state and prefers that Mr. Harriman should finance Mr. Spreckels' road rather than do it itself.

This being the situation, Mr. Harriman is considering the Spreckels project, and most people are of the opinion that when the favorable opportunity comes a deal will be made; that Mr. Spreckels, with the Southern Pacific's consent, will be given much personal and public credit for the enterprise, and that Harriman will manage the enterprise in his own way.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong. He says: "My mother who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at all drug stores at 50c.

Yuma Chorus Club.

Members of the Yuma Chorus club met Thursday evening last in honor of Miss Anita Post, the club director, who left for Tucson Sunday to complete a course in the University.

Lame Back.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LeGrange of Orange Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by Ketcherside Drug Store.

Creamery Talk Revived.

A creamery for Yuma is again in prospect. Mr. F. D. Smith, a gentleman familiar with the milk and butter industry and engaged in that business in Los Angeles, arrived in Yuma Sunday for the purpose of investigating the feasibility of establishing a plant here.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could hardly attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints. R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bros., Greenville, Ala. For sale by Ketcherside Drug Store.

Natatorium Opens.

Yuma's swimming hole or plunge was opened to the public Tuesday night, and a large crowd was present to enjoy a dip in the water or watch others splash around in the first plunge Yuma ever had. The natatorium is very recently going to be a most popular resort, and a profitable one for the proprietors.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "I have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies but the cough continued until I bought a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores at 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Mrs. George H. Rockwood and daughter have returned from a summer's visit with Mr. Rockwood's parents at Elkhart Falls, Oregon.

Death of Chief Justice
Webster Street

Judge Webster Street, former Chief Justice of Arizona, died in Los Angeles last Monday morning from paresis, with which he was stricken several months ago.

Former Justice Street is of English Quaker stock, and was born at Salem, O., June 8, 1846. He was admitted to the bar at St. Clairsville, O., in 1871. In 1877 he went to Arizona, practicing law in Prescott, Signal, Tucson and Tombstone, in the last-named place serving a term as county judge. In 1887 he went to Phoenix in partnership with Briggs Goodrich. In October 1897, he was appointed Chief Justice of Arizona, holding the office for a term.

His family consists of a wife and two children, his wife and his son, Lawrence, were with him in Los Angeles. A married daughter resides in London, England.

Former Justice Street was a strong Republican and once served as the Chairman of the Republican Committee of Arizona.

He was also deeply interested in lodge work, and belonged to the Masons, Workmen, Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows. He was elevated to be Grand Chancellor Commander of the Knights of Pythias in Arizona and served the order several times as Supreme Representative.

He has been honored also by election to the place of president of the Territorial Bar Association. Of pleasing personality and of oratorical gifts, he was always welcomed as a speaker. His notable charm of manner gave him rare popularity among his associates at the bar.

It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purposes for which it is intended. Sold by Ketcherside Drug Store.

Handsome Homes.

Taking a stroll up to the fur end of Second Avenue last Sunday evening for the first time in several moons, a Sentinel representative had a first-time view of many new and pretty homes, and one of these belongs to Attorney W. P. Timmons. Direct reference is made to the Timmons place because Mr. Timmons happened to be there and took the pains to "show us around." He took a praiseworthy pride in doing so, for he has one of the prettiest and most comfortable residences on the Avenue, and he was his own architect and builder. The house is not a pretentious one, but better still is comfortable, roomy and substantial, and handsome within. Back of the house he has just completed a stone and cement "plunge" or swimming hole, which will certainly be a delight for the kids. And he is now preparing to beautify the home grounds with shrubbery and grass plots. The Timmons house is an illustration of what a man can do alone if he only sets himself about it and works to an intelligent end.

$100,000 CLEANED UP BY NORTH STAR MINE.

A shipment of bullion was made from the North Star mine last Tuesday, a week ago, representing less than 30 days' clean-up, and was a pleasing surprise even to the owners. This was the first shipment since the new mill was put in operation. As there is plenty more of the same ore in sight, the owners are naturally very jubilant. Forty men are now working and this force will be increased as they can be placed to advantage in the progress of development.

The North Star is the mine discovered by Felix Mayhew and has made him and his associates rich. They sold the mine to New York Capitalists for $350,000, and the indications are that they will make millions out of their purchase. The claims are located in north-eastern Yuma county, not far from the famous King of Arizona.

There has been considerable litigation involving the property, but all has been settled, except a suit still pending in which Dan J. Brislin brought suit for $50,000 claimed as a commission on the sale of the mine. At the last term of court the jury failed to agree and the case is to be retried at the October term. Brislin's attorneys are Timmons & Baxter of Yuma and Sullivan of Prescott.

Pete Munson Promoted.

Pete Munson, one of the best known section foremen on the Southern Pacific for years, has been promoted to the position of road master of the Laguna Dam branch, and is being congratulated by his many friends. Pete Munson is a careful and competent railroad man, and the promotion is no more than he deserved for his long and faithful service.

Gas Rates Reduced.

The Yuma Electric and Water company has announced a reduction in the rates to be charged for gas, to become effective October 1. The old rates of $2.25 for cooking and heating and $3.00 for lights has been reduced to $2.00 and $3.00 per thousand. Evidently the people of Yuma are to be congratulated on the change in the management of the Gas company. It is not often that a company makes a monopoly voluntarily and as such a move as this.

Robertson vs. Fuquay.

The wrestling match at the Rink Saturday night promises to be a contest worth seeing. Fred Robertson, one of the principals, followed the business for four years as a professional, and has defeated some of the best wrestlers in his class. He is an all-around athlete, weighs 160 pounds, and looks the wrestler all over.

His opponent, J. W. Fuquay, is a railroad man and has no claim to professionalism, but his strong athletic frame betokens him a man worthy of Mr. Robertson's steel-like sinews. He weighs 158. Two weeks ago Fuquay defeated Nesbitt, a local man of apparently much greater strength, and Fred Robertson challenged the winner for a match for $100 a side, and it was accepted. Saturday night will determine the status of the two men. There will no doubt be a large crowd present to witness the contest.

A Sure-enough Knocker.

J. C. Goodwin of Reidsville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure-enough knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns, etc. 25c at all drug stores.

Notice.

Office of the County Treasurer and Tax Collector of Yuma County

The Duplicate Assessment Roll of the County of Yuma, Territory of Arizona, for the year 1908 is now in my possession for the collection of the taxes levied and payable at my office at Yuma, Arizona. Said taxes will become delinquent on the third Monday in December next (December 21, 1908), and unless paid on that day or prior thereto, 15 cents on each piece or tract of land, separately assessed, and on each assessment of personal property, as clerk's costs, also interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum until paid, and 4 per cent collector's fee, will be added thereto. GEO. MICHELSEN, Treasurer and Ex-officio Tax Collector of Yuma County. Sept. 23-4

Convict Escaped.

James Rodriguez, one of the prisoners taken from here to work on the new prison at Florence, escaped last week and had not yet been apprehended. Rodriguez was a trusty, as many of the men taken to Florence are, and only had eleven months to serve to complete his sentence, and this would have been reduced nearly one-half by continued good behavior. If recaptured he will of course lose all his credits and get additional time for running off. Rodriguez was sent up from Yavapai county for murder.

Eugene Ingram a Benedict.

Eugene Ingram was recently married to Miss Amber Day, a sister of Mrs. W. H. Shorey, and a very charming girl with many friends in Yuma. The wedding took place in Seattle, Washington. Gene Ingram, as he was popularly known here, was formerly in business in Yuma, and still has interests here in connection with his father. The many friends of the young couple in Yuma wish them much joy.

Somewhat Fixed.

John Gandolfo contemplates the erection of a modern hotel on the lot adjoining the Imperial hotel in Phoenix, and will be a candidate for congress on the Independence League ticket.

The above from the Albuquerque Citizen, would seem to indicate that the exchange editor of that paper had got his "dope sheets" somewhat confused.

After Foraker.

A petition was being circulated by Dick Stanton Saturday afternoon, asking Senator Joseph B. Foraker to honor Yuma by his presence some day in October. The Senator is scheduled for speeches in several cities of the territory, and it is much to be hoped that he may be induced to speak here. The petition had over four hundred signatures, including men of all parties.

Charles Ritter, a popular engineer who formerly handled the throttle of the helper engine at Yuma, has returned from a pleasant visit of four months at his old home near Chicago. He will later have a passenger run out of Los Angeles on the main line, and left for that city yesterday.

The wife of John Gandolfo, Jr., returned last night from the coast.

Public School Opened.
The Yuma city schools opened Monday, with an enrollment of 375. In the high school department there was an enrollment of 40. The total number will undoubtedly be increased, as some of the students to be enrolled have not yet returned from their summer's vacation. The first day was taken up with the assignment of scholars, who were also furnished with a list of books necessary.

Fatal Accident at the Dam.
Andres Carrillo, a Mexican employed at the dam lost his life last Thursday by being struck by a large rock and knocked into the river, where he was drowned before he could be rescued. The body was recovered and buried on Friday.
Another Mexican, Alberto Bonorsa, was caught by a cave-in and narrowly escaped death, having three ribs broken and was otherwise injured, but will recover.

C. H. Buckley, a prominent business man and capitalist from La Junta, Colorado, spent a few days investigating Yuma and Yuma valley last week and seemed well pleased with the prospects. Mr. Buckley recently sold out a banking business in which he was engaged at La Junta, and is now looking for a new location. He continued on to the coast, but his favorable impressions of this section may cause him to return again and go into something here.

Captain Isaac Polhamus and wife have returned from San Pedro and Los Angeles, where they spent the summer with their children and families. Captain Polhamus seems to be growing younger, and the 80 years rests as lightly upon him, as 50 upon many men.

Miss Adeline Frank, who has been attending school in Los Angeles, for the past two years, returned home Sunday night. Miss Frank is a very handsome and accomplished young lady and has a large circle of friends who were glad to welcome her return.

On recommendation of County School Superintendent Godfrey, the board of supervisors have established Jordan School district No. 28, the boundaries which are identical with voting Precinct No. 13. Ten census children are in the district.

Mrs. Wupperman and two children returned Sunday night from the coast, where they spent the summer, and as a result Attorney Henry Wupperman is about the happiest man in Yuma.

George W. Norton was in Yuma a few hours last Wednesday on his return from Los Angeles, where he had been with his son Charley to place him in school.
